

Moneyed militants

Some commercial interests of MK Military Veterans' Association (MKMVA)

Previous MKMVA executive committee Term ended Sept 2007

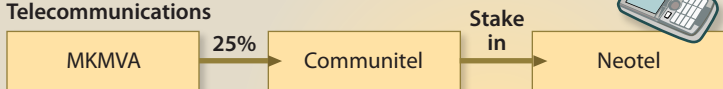

Investments under leadership of Deacon Mathe and Dumisane Khoza

Platinum mining

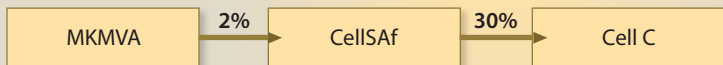

No dividends have been received to date.

Telecommunications

MKMVA owes fellow shareholders in Communitel, Telkom Namibia, over R100-m and faces having its stake dissolved. No dividends received to date.

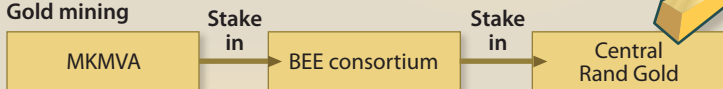

MKMVA is receiving dividends

Current MKMVA executive committee Sept 2007 to Sept 2012

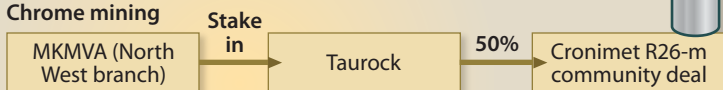

Investments under leadership of Kebby Maphatsoe and Sparks Motseki.

Gold mining

CRG promised MKMVA 60% of security and fuel supply contracts. CRG's business slumped and MKMVA received nothing. MKMVA gets a R1-m annual pay out a year from CRG towards members' funeral expenses.

Chrome mining

Sunday Times of Dec 2009 reported that the rural North West community involved in the Cronimet deal didn't know it would lose half its proceeds to politically connected Taurock, which acted as a go-between in the deal.

Uranium mining

